

CHSC7510 STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Analyze current issues/trends in women's and children's health from a public health perspective;
- Assess scientific, clinical, economic, political, and ethical/legal aspects of each issue/trend;
- Describe, debate, and discuss conceptual, methodological, and policy issues/trends in women's and children's health;
- Discuss the implications for public health practice and policy, and
- Present those views orally or written in cogent, concise, and crisp language.