

Other sources for internships, funded and otherwise:

1. ASPH

www.asph.org > employment and training > internship and fellowship programs

ASPH manages several regular internship and fellowship programs throughout the year. Programs marked in bold are currently accepting applications:

- ASPH Public Health Policy Fellowship
- ASPH Public Health Preparedness Fellowship
- ASPH Summer Internship Program
- ASPH/CDC Allan Rosenfield Global Health Fellowship Program
- ASPH/CDC Fellowship Program
- ASPH/CDC Internship Program
- ASPH/CDC/PRC Minority Fellowship
- ASPH/EPA Environmental Health Fellowship Program
- ASPH/HRSA Fellowship Program
- ASPH/HRSA Summer Internship Program
- ASPH/NHTSA Fellowship Program
- ASPH/NHTSA Public Health Internship Program
- CDC Bioterrorism Fellowship
- CDC/CSTE Applied Epidemiology Fellowship Program
- Overseas Fellowships in Global Health and Clinical Research
- Public Health Reports Summer Internship
- USDA/FSIS Fellowship

In addition to these programs, outside organizations often submit internship and fellowship opportunities of interest to our students. These submissions can be found in the "Employment & Training: Current Opportunities" section of ASPH.org.

2. Global Health Fellows Program

www.ghfp.net

Applications for Summer 2009 internships available November 2008. For notification join our listserv at www.ghfp.net.

3. Worktraveatsleep.wordpress.com

Check out these listings and/or subscribe to get listings on a regular basis.

4. Stone Center for L.A. Studies

Stonecenter.tulane.edu

Summer Field Research Grants: The Stone Center for Latin American Studies invites all Tulane University graduate students engaged in the study of Latin America or the Caribbean to apply for funding to conduct field research outside of the United States during the summer of 2008. Funding is provided through the Stone Center for Latin American Studies and the Cuban & Caribbean Studies Institute, as well as through the Tinker Foundation. These field research grants are not to be used for dissertation research, but rather to provide graduate students who have little to no field research experience with an opportunity to explore the feasibility of a particular field research project and to gain experience in conducting preliminary hands-on field research abroad. A complete application packet must include three documents: the Summer Field Research Grant Application Form, an official transcript of graduate work, and the Summer Field Research Grant Faculty Sponsor Recommendation form. Before applying, please read the program eligibility and application guidelines carefully. The application deadline is March 24, 2008. (2009 deadline will be similar but you have to keep checking the website.)

FLAS Summer Fellowships: The Stone Center for Latin American Studies receives funding from the U.S. Department of Education's Title VI program for Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) fellowships. Part of the FLAS fellowships administered by the Stone Center are available to graduate students for the intensive study over the summer of Kaqchikel Maya, Portuguese, or another less-commonly taught Latin American language. Graduate students wishing to engage in intensive study of such a language are encouraged to apply for one of these fellowships. Only U.S. citizens or permanent residents are eligible to apply; and only intensive summer language programs approved by the U.S. Department of Education are eligible under this program. A listing of some of the approved programs is prepared by CLASP and available on-line. The guidelines of this program are very specific, please read them carefully before applying. Students will have to submit a complete Summer FLAS Fellowship Proposal Application Form, an official transcript of graduate work, and the Summer FLAS Fellowship Faculty Sponsor Recommendation Form. The application deadline is March 10, 2008. (2009 deadline will be similar but you have to keep checking the website.)

5. The Idealist

www.idealists.org

Search these listings:

Nonprofit Jobs (6,343)

Volunteer opportunities (15,025)

Internships (2,062)

6. The Peace Corps Hotline

www.peacecorps.gov

Note: You don't have to have been a PC Volunteer to look at the current and past issues of the Hotline. There are listings there of internships and volunteer ops.

International volunteer and internship opportunities

Compiled by the Global Health Fellows Program www.ghfp.net

Academy for Educational Development <http://www.aed.org/index.cfm>

AED is an independent, nonprofit organization committed to solving critical social problems and building the capacity of individuals, communities, and institutions to become more self-sufficient. AED works in all the major areas of human development in the United States and developing countries.

Adventist Development and Relief Agency International www.adra.org

ADRA works to improve the quality of life in developing countries through integrated community-based development and disaster preparedness and response activities. ADRA is an affiliate of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and fulfills its objectives without regard to ethnicity, biographic origin, age, gender, political or religious association.

Africare <http://www.africare.org/>

Africare works in partnership with African communities to achieve healthy and productive societies. Africare's approach places communities at the center of development activities. Africare believes that only through strong communities can Africa feed itself, appropriately exploit its natural resources, educate, care and protect its children, promote the economic well being of African people and live in peace.

American Friends Service Committee <http://www.afsc.org/>

This AFSC community works to transform conditions and relationships both in the world and in ourselves, which threaten to overwhelm what is precious in human beings. We nurture the faith that conflicts can be resolved nonviolently, that enmity can be transformed into friendship, strife into cooperation, poverty into well-being, and injustice into dignity and participation.

American Jewish World Service <http://www.ajws.org/>

American Jewish World Service (AJWS) is an international development organization motivated by Judaism's imperative to pursue justice. AJWS is dedicated to alleviating poverty, hunger and disease among the people of the developing world regardless of race, religion or nationality. Through grants to grassroots organizations, volunteer service, advocacy and education, AJWS fosters civil society, sustainable development and human rights for all people.

The American Red Cross <http://www.redcross.org/index.html>

The American Red Cross helps vulnerable people around the world to prevent, prepare for, and respond to disasters, complex humanitarian emergencies, and life-threatening health conditions.

The American Refugee Committee <http://www.arcrelief.org/>

The American Refugee Committee works with refugees, displaced people, and those at risk to help them survive crises and rebuild lives of dignity, health, security and self-sufficiency.

CARE www.care.org

CARE is a leading humanitarian organization fighting global poverty. We place special focus on working alongside poor women because, equipped with the proper resources, women have the power to help whole families and entire communities escape poverty. Women are at the heart of CARE's community-based efforts to improve basic education, prevent the spread of HIV, increase access to clean water and sanitation, expand economic opportunity and protect natural resources.

Catholic Relief Services www.crs.org

Catholic Relief Services was founded in 1943 by the Catholic Bishops of the United States. Our mission is to assist the poor and disadvantaged, leveraging the teachings of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to alleviate human suffering, promote development of all people, and to foster charity and justice throughout the world. CRS operates on five continents and in 98 countries.

Centre for Development and Population Activities <http://www.cedpa.org/>

Founded in 1975, the Centre for Development and Population Activities (CEDPA) is an internationally recognized non-profit organization that improves the lives of women and girls in developing countries. Our approach is to work hand-in-hand with women leaders, local partners, and national and international organizations to give women the tools they need to improve their lives, families and communities.

Doctors of the World-USA <http://www.doctorsoftheworld.org/>

Founded by a group of volunteer physicians, Doctors of the World-USA is an international health and human rights organization working where health is diminished or endangered by violations of human rights and civil liberties.

Global Services Corps www.globalservicecorps.org

Global Service Corps is an international service-learning organization that is built on the participation of its volunteer participants, staff, and advisors, both in the developed and developing countries of the world. Its program is established on the view that the personal lives and activities of people around the world are increasingly intertwined. It is important that we understand the inter-relatedness of our actions and the effect they have on individual health, social well-being, and environmental stability worldwide.

Habitat for Humanity International www.habitat.org

Habitat for Humanity International is a nonprofit, ecumenical Christian housing ministry. HFHI seeks to eliminate poverty housing and homelessness from the world, and to make decent shelter a matter of conscience and action. Habitat invites people of all backgrounds, races and religions to build houses together in partnership with families in need.

Health Volunteers Overseas www.hvousa.org

Health Volunteers Overseas is a private non-profit organization dedicated to improving the availability and quality of health care in developing countries by the training and education of local health care providers.

InterAction <http://www.interaction.org/>

InterAction is the largest alliance of U.S.-based international development and humanitarian nongovernmental organizations. With more than 160 members operating in every developing country, we work to overcome poverty, exclusion and suffering by advancing social justice and basic dignity for all.

The International Rescue Committee <http://www.theirc.org/>

The International Rescue Committee seeks to bring attention to forgotten or neglected crises and to pressure governments and international organizations to help and protect refugees, displaced people and other victims of conflict.

International Medical Corps <http://www.imcworldwide.org/>

International Medical Corps is a global, humanitarian, nonprofit organization dedicated to saving lives and relieving suffering through health care training and relief and development programs.

International Center for Research on Women www.icrw.org

ICRW has worked with partner organizations and governments throughout the world to promote gender equitable development, reduce poverty, and change the lives of millions of women and girls and their communities.

Mercy Corps <http://www.mercycorps.org/>

Mercy Corps exists to alleviate suffering, poverty and oppression by helping people build secure, productive and just communities.

The Peace Corps www.peacecorps.gov

The Peace Corps traces its roots and mission to 1960, when then Senator John F. Kennedy challenged students at the University of Michigan to serve their country in the cause of peace by living and working in developing countries. From that inspiration grew an agency of the federal government devoted to world peace and friendship.

United Methodist Committee on Relief www.umcor.org

UMCOR is the humanitarian relief and development agency of the United Methodist Church, a worldwide denomination. For 65 years UMCOR has responded internationally to natural or human made disasters-those interruptions of such magnitude that they overwhelm a community's ability to recover on its own.

