

Course ID	Course Description	Course Objectives
HSMG 6100 Hospital Operations	Hospital Organization examines the structure, processes and problems involved in daily operations of contemporary hospitals. Emphasis is placed on understanding the roles of the management team, the medical staff and the board, connecting organizational mission and performance, and the fundamental notions of high quality patient care.	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Examine the key concepts of hospital organization and operations2. Identify the key stakeholders and segments of the health care industry3. Recognize the role of leaders in health care organizations at multiple levels4. Apply theoretical concepts to real-world scenarios and situations5. Develop a personal management philosophy and strategy