Global Community Health and Behavioral Sciences

GCHB 6150 Taiwan Field Study Course Informational Meeting

TUESDAY FEBRUARY 8, 2017 12:00PM – 1:00PM
GCHB Medium Conference Room (2200-46)
Lunch will be provided!

Course Leader: Dr. David Seal (dseal@tulane.edu) or TA: Lisa Chang (cchang13@tulane.edu)

Course Dates: May 15-28, 2017

This meeting will include a presentation from a financial aid counselor who will explain the summer financial aid process!

GCHB 6150: Taiwan Strategies to Community Health Practices
(3 summer course credits)

- Course cost: $900 (includes lodging, local transportation and many meals)
- Airfare – generally about $1,000-1,200
- Financial Aid – all expenses incurred with the trip including tuition, airfare, lodging, meals etc. can be covered under Tulane financial aid arrangement
- Course activity components: lectures, site visits, research projects, Chinese medicine, universal national health insurance plan, and rich cultural encounters
- 10-12 Tulane students will be selected to match with 10-12 University students from Taiwan

http://www.sph.tulane.edu/summer-abroad-public-health