

Doctoral Student Web Page Release Form

Beginning Spring 2021, SPHTM will initiate webpages for doctoral students. All doctoral students who wish to have a web page linked to the Tulane School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine website must have a signed and dated Information and Photograph Consent, Waiver, Indemnity, and Release Form in place with the school.

The student can terminate their web page at any time by emailing SPHTM Communications at sphcomm@tulane.edu. The school can also terminate the student web page at any time if a student is removed from the program due to failing grades or dishonorable conduct. Student web pages may be kept in place for up to two years following graduation.

Instructions on how to secure credentials to establish a website and related information will be provided separately.
